

Regular Meeting of the The Committee

December 01, 2023 at 9:00 AM

The Committee to preserve the heritage and collective strengths of the Town of Sheridan and Adams Township area communities met on Friday, December 01, 2023 at 9:00 AM at the Sheridan Community Center with members Si DeVaney, Eric Gifford, Michelle Junkins, Floyd Barker, Heidi Keinholz was present, along with attorney Todd Burtron.

1. Introduction

Eric Gifford began the meeting by welcoming everyone in attendance.

The Committee shared their thoughts on the reorganization meeting that was held on November 29, 2023 at the Elementary School.

The Committee was pleased with the responses received from the public on the merger. They also appreciated the feedback that they received on reorganization concerns.

2. Reorganization Plan

Jim Higgins presented to the committee how his system will work when planning for the reorganization. The Committee will be using the city of Zionsville model for their reorganization.

Jim Higgins covered possible changes that can occur during an annexation. He also touched on how an expanded town will need to pay for services in the new area.

Jim Higgins will present to The Committee multiple options of feasibility for the reorganization. A flexible model of the vision will be available for The Committee to mold into the best possible option for the Town of Sheridan and Adams Township merger.

3. Communications Committee

The committee discussed communication strategies and the need for a Communication Sub Committee. It was determined that community members, Andrew Porterfield and Rick Hogge, along with member Heidi Keinholz, would make up the communications committee.

4. Next Meeting

The next meeting will be held on December 08, 2023 at 9:00 AM at the Sheridan Community Center

5. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 10:13 AM
